

I am disappointed in the FCC's decision to enable huge corporate conglomerates that control the media to get larger, effectively limiting the ability for non-corporate voices to be heard. Our founding fathers knew that in order for a democracy to work, a free press is absolutely necessary. Please do not hurt our country more than your previous relaxing of these laws already has.